February 2016

“Come, let’s talk this over, says the Lord; no matter how deep the stain of your sins, I can take it out and make you as clean as freshly fallen snow. Even if you are stained as red as crimson, I can make you white as wool!” Isaiah 1:18 (TLB)

Jeanine and I have just started studying the book of Isaiah. Like Israel of old, we are prone to wander away from the truth, rebel, become self-sufficient and self-centered. The results can be devastating! Yet, our loving Lord ever pursues and chases after us, never satisfied to write us off and be done with us.

At Freedom Ministries we seek to look beyond a person’s behavior and care for their heart. Often, people come to us with years of consequences for their own sin or the abuse from others. We want to be like Jesus to the wounded and broken hearted; tender, compassionate, understanding, yet leading them to the truth that will set them free.

2015 Annual Report

Praise God for His provision for FMQC. We are so grateful: to those who help with our prayer letter, administration; training, to the many churches and individuals who support us prayerfully and financially, and to the host of prayer warriors who make this ministry possible.

We are so thankful for our part-time secretary, Kim Roach, who has served ten and a half years.

We have been blessed with a Board of Directors who serve sacrificially: Carol Jacks, our secretary, Kevin Hamilton, our chairman, and Dave Brummitt, our treasurer. We are so grateful for their commitment to this ministry.

We continue to use Augustana Web Guild to design and manage the web site and Blog for Freedom Ministries.

This year’s FMQC income was 90% of our budget with several large unexpected financial gifts!

Speaking/Ministry/Conferences/Fund Raisers:

- Attended monthly EFC Ministerial’s
- Attended the EFCA Theology Conference, Chicago Jan. 28-30
- Preached at Faith Free, Moline Feb.22
- Spoke at the Caring for the Heart Retreat April 19-24

Mission

Freedom Ministries of the Quad Cities exists to help couples and individuals experience freedom in Christ through identifying and resolving spiritual and emotional conflicts thus strengthening, empowering and helping fulfill their relationship with Jesus Christ and others.

God has been faithful this year to provide all we need to accomplish this ministry. He is our provider, sustainer, and carries us through the ups and downs of our lives. We thank Him for the strength He provides.

Prayer Team

If you believe in this ministry and have a heart for helping people who are struggling with spiritual and emotional conflicts in their lives, we invite you to become a member of our Freedom Ministries Prayer Team. Each week you will receive a Prayer Update from us by email and we ask that you pray through the items listed. Prayer is a vital part of this ministry. Please contact us at freedomministries@att.net if you feel God's call for this ministry opportunity.

Testimonies

"I'm so thankful I experienced those couple of days with you guys. God is good in helping me forgive my husband. It feels so much better now not be bitter."

A young Amish girl came to us at age 18 to heal from the abuse of her past. Over the years she called & met with us numerous times for encouragement, counsel and advice. Now 25, she was married this last Sept. and invited us to attend the wedding. What a blessing to see her grow in Christ and impact her family and community. She reaches out to friends who need encouragement
